WORKFORCE SOLUTIONS FOR NORTH CENTRAL TEXAS RECOGNIZES ANNA COKER AS BOARD MEMBER OF THE YEAR

ARLINGTON, Texas – Workforce Solutions for North Central Texas (WSNCT) Workforce Board Member, Anna Coker, has been recognized as the WSNCT Board Member of the Year.

Ms. Coker received this honor at WSNCT's annual Awards of Excellence event held on January 29, 2020 at the Hurst Conference Center in Hurst, Texas. The Award of Excellence recognizes the dedication and impact of those who work in, with and on behalf of the organization, including board members, workforce center staff, business partners, educational institutions and community organizations throughout the 14-county area served by WSNCT.

"In the short time Anna has been a member of our Board, she has become a champion for our programs and services wherever she goes," said David Setzer, Executive Director for WSNCT. "She sets an example by volunteering her time at numerous events and programs, and is an advocate for quality child care in our region."

Ms. Coker is the owner of Learning Ladder Child Development Centers, a Texas Rising Star-certified business that partners with Decatur Independent School District to provide quality, early childhood services to district employees and their families.
